THE AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL LABOR PARTY'S QUOTA SYSTEM

<http://www.dailyliberal.com.au/story/1809447/shorten-proposes-gay-indigenous-quotas/?cs=112>
Shorten proposes gay, indigenous quotas 30 September, 2013 (Edited by DCB) - The political party, Labor, recently lost the Australian Federal election. Now the "Labor leadership aspirant Bill Shorten has proposed broadening the party's quota system to include gay and lesbian candidates and indigenous Australians, to improve their under-representation in Parliament." The Labor Party also is seeking to "redouble its efforts to promote at least 40 per cent female candidates."

Is Bill Shorten saying the present Labor Party is now largely comprised of white, heterosexual males? Now with all this political correctness I was just thinking about former Labor Party Cabinet Minister, Penny Wong. Wong is a lesbian whose "partner" recently gave birth to a baby. Now, if Wong's "partner" is the wife what is Wong? If she is the husband does she still count toward Shorten's desire for a lesbian quota? Also where is the quota for transgender people?

DO MOSQUES RECEIVE THE SAME BENEFIT?

Call for an end to rate rort law - some exemptions for charities, government institutions are burdening homeowners 30 September, 2013, (Edited by DCB) - A picture is worth a thousand words so goes the saying. Perhaps that is why the Australian Daily Telegraph used a photo of a cross when they printed their story on "RATE exemptions to charities and government agencies are placing an unfair burden on the average homeowner, a new report has revealed. It recommends religious institutions, any charities with commercial operations and state government agencies recording multi-million dollar profits should be forced to pay council rates."

There may be some truth to the story, I do not know, but I wonder how much outrage there would have been if the photo had been of a mosque or another Islamic symbol. I wonder, just wonder if the editor at the Daily Telegraph knew that if he wanted his paper to stay safe, DO NOT MENTION ISLAM or show any photos that might “justify violence” against him or his paper by the Religion of Peace?! Just wondering!

OLD AGE & SEXUAL SINS

<http://www.dailyliberal.com.au/story/1810768/sex-re-education-vital-for-baby-boomers/?cs=24> Sex re-education vital for baby boomers September 30, 2013 (Edited by DCB) - One would think that the older we get the more mature we would get but that doesn't seem to be the case. “With more Australians living longer and healthier lives at the same time as divorce rates are on the rise, many will find new sexual partners later in life. Some of those who have been in long, monogamous relationships are now looking for more casual sexual encounters before they commit themselves again.” What is promoting this rampant desire for sexual sin? The article said “The availability of drugs such as Viagra has given many men who had given up hope to be sexual again, new opportunities.” Opportunity? As for the “Women who are now at a different stage in their life are quite happy being single for a while. The children may have left home and it is now time for them to have some fun. However, a long period of sexual monogamy has left them ill-equipped about safe-sex practice. Most women were on the pill and never, ever used a condom. And they missed out on the ‘safe sex messages’ that were promoted in the 1980s.”

Where is the common sense, self-control and morality? Have these older folk thrown off all restraint? Well, because these poor dumb older people missed out on the “safe sex messages” “New cases of chlamydia among Australians aged 40 to 85 have jumped 17 per cent in the past three years, while the incidence of gonorrhoea has risen 44 per cent in the same period, an analysis by Family Planning NSW has revealed.” The more people get away from God and His Word the more sin and disease there will be. Worldly sex education is not the answer but rather old fashion morality for “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people” Proverbs 14:34 and oh yes, “The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness” Proverbs 16:31.

WORSHIP LEADER & THE WORSHIP TEAM

http://ffp.com.au/news.php?id=179&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=Chapel+Sessions+Promo+Oct+13&utm_content=Chapel+Sessions+Promo+Oct+13+Version+B+CID_5ad2da7a84aaa838afc09092d67df7c9&utm_source=PromoCast (Edited by DCB) - The worship leader and team play a very prominent role in today's contemporary church. In fact they are probably the main emphasis in many of these churches. Interestingly the words “worship” and “leader” are not found once together in the Bible. The word “leader” is found three times in the Old Testament and the word “worship” is found in 98 verses in both testaments. The word “team” is not found anywhere in the Bible but because music has become so important to these churches they MUST have such a person and team. Whether they truly promote real worship or not is another article.
