<http://www.news.com.au/national/nsw-act/east-hills-boys-high-school-student-brushes-past-last-post-ceremony/story-fnii5s3x-1227120039056> Nov. 12, 2014 East Hills Boys High School student brushes past Last Post ceremony (Edited by DCB) - In Sydney, Australia “A STUDENT at East Hills Boys High School is facing disciplinary action after failing to attend an assembly that -included a remembrance service and the playing of The Last Post yesterday.” “It was claimed the student had previously created tension at the school by refusing to stand during the Australian National Anthem and had attended a demonstration carrying a placard with the words “Behead all the Infidels”.” Is this boy a minority within the peace loving Islamic faith or is he the norm?

<http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org.au/who-we-are> Who we are - Change is coming (Edited by DCB) - As a boy of the Islamic faith carries a placard with the words “Behead all the Infidels” the Australian and State governments seem more interested in placating dysfunctional teenagers. The School safe coalition says it is “...a national coalition dedicated to making schools safer and more inclusive for same sex attracted, intersex and gender diverse young people. We are creating change to ensure that every student and every teacher in every school has access to a safe and inclusive learning environment.” It is said to be “...a program that has already worked with thousands of school staff and students to challenge homophobia and transphobia and positively support gender diversity and sexual diversity.”

<http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org.au/what-we-do> (Edited by DCB) - Why are teens in such a quandary as to what gender they are? Well, the Australian Federal and State governments through the safe school coalition are out “...to improve safety and inclusivity for same sex attracted, intersex and gender diverse students, their families and teachers, while taking a zero-tolerance approach to homophobia and transphobia in the school community.” These kids who are not sure whether they are boy, girl or both “...can organise activities, events and groups such as Diversity Alliances ('gay-straight', 'queer-straight' alliances) in schools to actively challenge homophobia and transphobia and create the kind of school culture that everyone wants – one that’s positive and supportive.”

<http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org.au/omg-my-friend-s-queer> (Edited by DCB) - With today’s society the way it is why would it be a surprise to most teens when their friends “come out”? Well according to the safe school coalition it is so they have printed with tax payers money “A guide to ‘coming out’ for friends created by young people.”

<http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org.au/who-we-are/our-supporters> Our Supporters - (Edited by DCB) - “Safe Schools Coalition Australia is nationally convened by the Foundation for Young Australians and funded nationally by the Australian Government Department of Education. In Victoria, the program is also funded by the Victorian Government.” Other supporters include the National Australia Bank (NAB). You may want to change banks.

<http://australianchristians.com.au/news/safe-schools-coalition-2014-first-national-symposium-13-june-2014/> (Edited by DCB)- The Safe Schools Coalition’s (SSC) 2014 First National Symposium was held in Melbourne, Australia in June, 2014. “The day was launched by Senator Scott Ryan, Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Education, followed by Leader of the Opposition in the Senate, Senator Penny Wong.” Ryan’s a senator of the supposedly conservative Liberal/National Federal government and Wong was a cabinet minister of the former Labor government and a Lesbian. Appreciative “Wong thanked Scott Ryan for the Liberals Decision to continue funding the Safe Schools Coalition”. During the Symposium the SSC “staff for each state were then introduced which included Family Planning NSW.”

<http://www.thenewnorm.org/> (Edited by DCB) - This is a web site “Empowering school communities to support universal love.” No this is not a web site for Buddhism but the “new norm” promoting all the sexual proclivities the unsaved mind can think of. It is saying be whatever you think you might be, boy, girl, boy/girl, it, we, them, us etc.”

<http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org.au/liberal-mp-speaks-out-for-inclusive-schools-for-lgbti-students> Liberal MP speaks out for inclusive schools 24 October, 2014 (Edited by DCB) -Are the conservatives conservative? A member of the supposed conservative Australian Federal Parliament said “Homophobia and transphobia are absolutely unacceptable in our schools and certainly unacceptable in our society”. Today there are sexual phobias along with the religious phobia known as Islamphobia. Yes I agree, hating someone just because they might be a Muslim, a sodomite or confused about what gender they are is unacceptable! However, since we now have all these phobias may I add to the list biblebelieversphobia, conservativephobia and straightphobia? Perhaps we should also add oldnormphobia since there is now the new norm which used to be the old abnormal . It does seem that the phobia list has stifled free speech and that sanity has left the room. John 3:17 is still in the Bible and it says “For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.”
