<http://sundayassembly.com/about/> The Public Charter - (Edited by DCB) Now the atheist has their own “church”. “The Sunday Assembly is a godless congregation that celebrates life. Our motto: live better, help often, wonder more. Our mission: to help everyone find and fulfill their full potential. Our vision: a godless congregation in every town, city and village that wants one.”

The following is the atheist belief and non-belief system:

“Is 100% celebration of life. We are born from nothing and go to nothing. Let’s enjoy it together.

Has no doctrine. We have no set texts so we can make use of wisdom from all sources.

Has no deity. We don’t do supernatural but we also won’t tell you you’re wrong if you do.

Is radically inclusive. Everyone is welcome, regardless of their beliefs – this is a place of love that is open and accepting.

Is free to attend, not-for-profit and volunteer run. We ask for donations to cover our costs and support our community work.

Has a community mission. Through our Action Heroes (you!), we will be a force for good.

Is independent. We do not accept sponsorship or promote outside businesses, organisations or services

Is here to stay. With your involvement, The Sunday Assembly will make the world a better place

We won’t tell you how to live, but will try to help you do it as well as you can” Some of this sounds like one of today’s contemporary churches!

<http://sundayassembly.com/blog/2014/08/05/sunday-assembly-hiring-coo/> The Sunday Assembly is Hiring a Chief Operating Officer August 5, 2014 (Edited by DCB) - Do you know a candidate for this position? “The Sunday Assembly is an international not-for-profit that helps people start and run their own godless congregations. Our motto: Live Better, Help Often and Wonder More. Our mission: to help everyone find and fulfil their full potential.” They are “looking for a Chief Operating Officer who will be responsible for the administrative, volunteer management and project planning of the movement - to effectively manage the internal operations of the Sunday Assembly.” Already this God denying organization has “helped 27 communities start their own Assemblies, and we’re on track to triple that number by the end of the year. With Assemblies launching in Berlin, Amsterdam, Sao Paulo, Singapore, Vancouver, Toowoomba, Glasgow, and Baltimore to name just a few of our new congregations.” Richard Dawkins comes to mind for this position.

<http://www.islamophobia.com.au/about.html> (Edited by DCB) - At the same time that Islamists are murdering thousands of people world-wide the Western world for some reason is doing all they can to protect Islam. Here in Australia we now have the “Islamophobia Register Australia”. This register “seeks to provide a means for incidents of Islamophobia and Anti-Muslim sentiments to be reported, recorded and analysed. Islamophobia Register Australia offers a secure and reliable service that allows people from across Australia to report any form of Anti-Muslim abuse. We have created a unique portal where you may address your concerns and record any incident that you experience as a result of your Muslim faith or someone perceiving you to be Muslim.” Some of the things that fall under Islamophobia are:

- “Assaults or attacks on persons of Muslim Background
- Attacks on Muslim Property or institutions
- Verbal abuse and hate speech/social media abuse
- Any form of discrimination in a public or private environment”

Reports of incidents of Islamophobia are if:

“you are the victim who had the Islamophobic behaviour directed at you (whether it is because of your Islamic faith or perceived Islamic faith) OR; you have personal knowledge (directly witnessed an incident or heard about an incident) of Islamophobic behaviour that fits within the categories listed above (Emphasis added).”
