“WORRY ENDS WHERE FAITH BEGINS”

WHY DECATUR?

RECENTLY MY HUSBAND, Pastor D. A. Waite, Th.D., Ph.D, and I were in DECATUR, MICHIGAN. For several years, PASTOR THOMAS STOUT has invited my husband to speak every other year to his church. VOLINIA BAPTIST CHURCH is in the midst of corn fields on Marcellus Highway—a beautiful site. Pastor Stout wants my husband to teach his church people the reasons that the KING JAMES BIBLE is the proper & best translation for Christians to use and to read today. The KING JAMES VERSION is translated from the proper Greek and Hebrew texts. Almost ALL other Bible versions are not. Needless to say, we enjoy this church very much and their stand for the RECEIVED TEXT!

REMINDING ME OF WELLINGTON, OHIO

DECATUR IS A SMALL MICHIGAN TOWN NEAR THE MOTEL IN DOWAGIAC WHERE MY HUSBAND AND I STAYED WHEN DR. WAITE TAUGHT AT VOLINIA BAPTIST A FEW WEEKS AGO. THE LITTLE TOWN OF DOWAGIAC REMINDS ME OF WELLINGTON, OHIO. Wellington was where my mother-in-law, Helen Peirce Waite, was born and raised. Her father was a tinsmith and owned a hardware store. It has been some time since my husband and I have been to Wellington for a look around--or any other Ohio town for that matter.

MY HUSBAND BORN IN ELYRIA OHIO,

MY HUSBAND WAS BORN IN ELYRIA, OHIO, December 8, 1927, 88 YEARS AGO. AS A YOUNG GIRL, I LIVED IN THE SMALL NEIGHBORING COUNTRY TOWN OF LaGRANGE, OHIO. LATER, OUR FAMILIES BOTH MOVED TO BEREA, OHIO. Years later, we both graduated from Berea High school, which is closer to Cleveland. That was in 1945. No one much remembers us in Ohio. In fact, people--when they do inquire--are told that we have died already. And our “home” church--since Pastor Willetts passed on--never asks Dr. Waite to speak there anymore, or for me to portray FANNY CROSBY for them either for that matter. We are complete strangers at Berea Baptist Church except the pastor knows who we are. Berea Baptist began in my grandparents living room way back when. It was the church that ordained my husband to the gospel ministry. My father, R. O Sanborn, was active in moving the church family from the little building out by the airport to the then- newly-built education building on West Street.

WORRY ENDS WHERE FAITH BEGINS

The store proprietor near Dowagiac, Michigan, was a born-again Christian. Her name was CLAUDIA! The reason she has this lovely store is to tell her customers about the unsearchable riches of the Lord Jesus Christ. She was a treasure of a woman! BUT I FOUND ANOTHER TREASURE THERE! This treasure was in the form of a saying carved on a piece of wood about eighteen inches long that said WORRY ENDS WHERE FAITH BEGINS. I took it home and placed it on a table so I could see and read it often. Now, every day when I see this carved piece of wood, I am reminded that "... Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Hebrews 11:1) How easy it is for us to forget! YES, "WORRY ENDS WHERE FAITH BEGINS."

"GREEK IN BRIEF"

IN SEPTEMBER, 19-23, 2016, DR. D. A. WAITE taught BIBLE GREEK TO CHINESE STUDENTS AT THE EVANGELICAL MISSION AND SEMINARY in TOWACO, NEW JERSEY. He taught five days, six hours a day. His goal was to familiarize his students with KOINE GREEK well enough so they could say the Greek alphabet and to be able to pronounce every Greek word they would ever see in their Greek New Testament. I attended and videoed every class. YOU MAY ORDER THE VIDEOS IF YOU WISH. It was thrilling for me personally--at the end of the course--to hear the class read a New Testament Bible verse in unison in KOINE GREEK! I was blessed at my husband's ability to teach Bible Greek, remembering all those words and rules he learned years ago. As I watched him teach, I remembered how at least two or three seminaries asked him to come be their Greek professor.
