RECENT MAJOR SURGERY

Recently I had to go to the hospital for some major surgery. My son said to me, "Mom, you should get a second opinion!" So I followed his advice. My husband made an appointment for me at the M.D. ANDERSON CANCER CLINIC connected with Cooper Hospital there in Camden New Jersey. And life moved on!

ONE DAY YOU ARE FINE, THE NEXT DAY YOU ARE A CANCER PATIENT!

You know how it is. One day you are fine and the next day, you are a cancer patient waiting for breast surgery. HOW GOOD OF THE LORD TO GIVE ME A SURGEON WHOM PREVIOUSLY I HAD KNOWN AND WHO HAD OPERATED ON ME A FEW YEARS AGO. I had forgotten about him until that moment of recognition in that appointment room. In fact, he recognized me first. He greeted me with the words, "You going to try me out again?" I didn't recognize him at first. He had white hair now and so do I. Well, really gray.

SO I WENT TO THE SECOND OPINION DOCTOR

I REMEMBER THE DAY I came to Cooper Hospital for a second opinion. I already had seen a surgeon in another hospital with a date almost set in stone for surgery with him. So it was the "second opinion" surgeon whom I saw next at a different hospital who remembered me right away. When I realized that I knew Dr. Atabec (the second doctor) and that he remembered me—even to remembering what procedure he did on me years ago-- I knew God had answered my prayer. I knew I had to change surgeons!! So I did!

THE PRESENT "UNREST" LEFT ME IMMEDIATELY

Dr. Atabec had white hair now. The "unrest" I was experiencing with the other surgeon and the other hospital left me immediately. There in that interviewing room talking with the SECOND OPINION DOCTOR--the surgeon that I knew years ago--I knew that I had to change hospitals and RETURN TO MY SURGEON OF YEARS AGO.

GOD GAVE ME REAL PEACE!

Once again DR. ATABEC would be my present surgeon for my present distress! Any unrest that I had with the other hospital, or the other surgeon, disappeared. GOD GAVE ME REAL PEACE. The present operation was a success. I had absolutely NO pain from the surgery! It was unbelievable. SUCH A BLESSING! SUCH GRACE!

AS I write this to you, I'm thinking of the recent death of one of our church friends. She died in her middle nineties--JUST YESTERDAY! She was so much a part of her daughter's life that the loss of her will be deeply felt by those who loved her. Death is such a final time in the life of a genuine Christian--anybody, for that matter. Death is so final! So unbelievable! Yet, so real! It is the great “crossing” from earth to Heaven for the sincere believer in the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour.

Such a death makes you and me pause and take stock of ourselves. Are we “born-again”? Jesus told NICODEMUS of “Old” that he MUST be BORN-AGAIN! I urge you to read the third chapter of the gospel of John (John 3:1-21) again today. Read once more Jesus’ own words in regard to ETERNAL LIFE AND YOUR RESPONSE TO JESUS’ PLEA, “YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!”
